Practical Guide to Management

By Michael D. Barr

Simply Management leads the reader through concrete examples of management challenges and how to deal with them. It is specifically designed to make the reader a better manager. The book covers the Essence of Management, Strategic Planning, Organizational Structure, Governance, Employee Development, Communication, and Motivation. While this provides the necessary framework, the focus of the book is how to apply the concepts to deliver results. Whether a new manager or CEO, the book is well worth reading. I highly recommend "Simply Management"
